10/29/2020

Rob's humour and his notes available after.

10/29/2020

I learnt a lot of information around what questions i need to be asking clients following strangulation. Also learning that separation happens when a new relationship begins that was really interesting and makes a lot of sense for our clients.

10/29/2020

Informal speaking style of Rob. Approachable and open to questions.

10/29/2020

Informative presentation about an area i wasn't overly well informed about.

10/29/2020

I love the information. Not relatable which is good for me but its good to be aware

10/29/2020

The thorough breakdown of strangulation, the impacts that it can have and the link with TBI

8/18/2020

well organized presentation with a lot a information was so informative Rob presented factual information clear and concise. He interacted well for his audience

8/17/2020

8/17/2020

A lot of relevant information. For my role being able to identify when there is a risk of this happening post conviction will inform my risk assessments greatly. Also using mechanics of sexual violence rather than specific words like rape or sexual assault will be very helpful in questioning process, this is the main tool in my role (questioning style)

8/16/2020

The fact that Rob really cares about this stuff

7/22/2020

it was made light for a heavy subject without taking away the context of the matter and seriousness this plays in society

7/17/2020

great information and knowing places to find resources

7/17/2020

Is there anything else you'd like to share about the event?

The smaller group was great and the availability of venues to choose from worked very well for us.

Where we could not attend on one date we could attend on another locally.

11/1/2020

Rob your demeanour from start to finish was warm and friendly. You know this monster and your advocacy for justice against it gives me a real sense of hope.

Good use of videos and slides. Thank you for sharing them.

10/29/2020

Well done Rob and many thanks!

10/29/2020

I'm so glad Rob came to Invercargill to present. Often, being at the end of the country, we're left out of training, so it was a great opportunity for all of our staff to attend, and at a cost that was reasonable for not-for-profit organisations.

10/29/2020

Very useful information, easy to apply in real life!

10/29/2020

Thank you Rob for continuing to offer family violence presentations and training for organisations and communities, especially on non-fatal strangulation. I agree that this is a public health issue that all people should be aware of.

10/29/2020

i would definitely be keen to get more involved in support of this and help promote awareness.

10/29/2020

Rob Veale Ltd – Presentation Feedback 2020

Invaluable new awareness, appropriate to my work.

9/25/2020

Overall fantastic information presented at lightning speed. Would like to have taken on info a bit slower but otherwise great.

9/21/2020

Having been working in family violence for the past 6yrs, this was new information to me about the frequency of strangulation in IPV!! Another alarming factor to me was the possibility that over my last 6yrs of professional practice I have met with women in IPV relationships who are suffering and have suffered strangulation that I didn't hear about in during our conversations! From this I will be asking more behaviourally based questions to establish if strangulation has been a factor in their relationship/s, knowing that it is a red flag to homicide. From there be attentive to other red flags such as increasing violence and changes in behaviours/threats to the victim.

9/21/2020

Under Level 2 Rob made sure that everyone was social distanced into their groups...very well organised!

9/21/2020

Good to see the wide range of services involved - would have networked a little more if we had had a coffee break (Covid restricted) and would be good to see more men involved in the process.

9/21/2020

The information was presented much too quickly. I didn't even finish reading most of the slides. In my view the workshop could have gone on for a couple more hours with more opportunity for interaction. Was great though. I'm very glad I went along. Thank you Rob!

9/21/2020

Thanks Rob for a very informative workshop. I am now "woke" on the affect on the brain and not the breathing.

9/1/2020

My only concern was to learn only a handful of social services and external services within my community have an awareness and use the knowledge within their own practice

8/25/2020

Loved it! :)

8/25/2020

This presentation should be mandatory for anyone working with whānau when Family Harm, current or historical, may be a factor in the engagement.

8/25/2020

The time frame for the event was too short - it could easily run longer than 3 hours; lot of questions was left unasked as the participants had to leave for work (1230hrs)

8/18/2020

Rob Veale Ltd – Presentation Feedback 2020

Great learning

8/17/2020

I think the workshop length was about right, although I definitely could have stayed longer and learned more! Great workshop, thank you Rob.

8/17/2020

EXCELLENT PRESENTATION

8/17/2020

Tino pai Rob

8/17/2020

Really enjoyed the event, gave me lots to think about. Lovely personality, so entertaining and informative.

7/18/2020

I have already spoken to other organisation and peers about the hui and they are keen to know more. I have also indicated to the presenter that i would like to have a session at our Marae

7/17/2020

You pack so much in to a couple of hours, Rob! I can see how passionate you are to get the TBI info out there, so wouldn't want to loose this. Maybe a bit less time on strangulation to give more time for the TBI section at the end? You are a gifted trainer, thanks for all you do.

7/17/2020

Rob is great presenter, could spend less time apologising for stuff as the main one at the beginning sufficed. It is ok to have some humour in a presentation like this and he got it right.

7/17/2020

I really enjoyed the educational session. It was informative, I do think having a bit more time for discussion would have been better.

7/16/2020

Thanks Rob. Havent heard anything about this topic as new to this area of mahi. I hear your passion about it. Some of the people you were sharing about i hadnt heard of, so maybe not assume we are all aware?

7/16/2020

Thanks to REAP for hosting the event and for the organisation supplying the food (it was very yummy!). Rob, thank you for continuing to highlight this issue and for sharing your personal reflections on your time as a police officer.

7/14/2020

I love that you've presented heaps of these workshops but your energy and passion for the topic is as if this was your first time. Thank you Rob.

Rob Veale Ltd – Presentation Feedback 2020

Thank you Rob for an excellent workshop !!! 😊

6/27/2020

I laughed when I saw the question. How likely would I recommend Rob Veale. It's Saturday and I haven't stopped. Forwarded resources to my daughter half way through a paramedic degree. Like the suicide training. Rob has given us new tools and languaging moving forward. I really believe this needs to be taught in schools and community. Perhaps tailored for age groups but our rangitahi would benefit from learning earlier rather than later. All I can say is. I gained much from your insight and life skills Rob.

6/27/2020

looking forward to learning more from Rob and testing our ideas in the domain of restorative justice

6/27/2020

It was amasing and every sector should attend should be compulsory learning for all social sectors

Other recent feedback

Morena Rob,

I wanted to quickly email you and let you know how valuable your workshop was last week! Within 48 hours I was on a crisis call with someone who said they had been strangled the night before. She hadn't been to see a doctor even though she had lost consciousness and she was also afraid that by slapping and biting the assailant she might get into trouble (she also didn't want him charged but Police were going to anyway). I felt confident providing her with evidence-based information and the recommendation that she see her doctor as quickly as possible. I am also encouraging others to attend again in the future and to look up the resources you provided. Are you able to send the Powerpoint for my future reference?

Anyway, thanks again. Much appreciated and very timely!
